

Hide and Seek, Art Avenue, Tachikawa, Tokyo, Japan. 2002. Children's playground with hidden sculptures. The children chose the objects to be cast, each object has a specific meaning in Japanese mythology. The children spin around on the circle with eyes closed and then open their eyes and follow the direction of the pointer to find their object and its associated meaning. Photography: Anne Graham.